- Anecdotal Records: Maintaining anecdotal records to track student progress and parent feedback.

These channels collectively enhance collaboration and strengthen the school community.

6. PROPOSED FEE REVISION

The Principal articulated to the esteemed members the imperative nature of a proposed fee revision scheduled for the 2025-26 academic year. This adjustment follows a two-year hiatus from any increase and is necessitated by a confluence of factors that underscore the school's commitment to excellence. The rationale behind this proposed fee revision encompasses a spectrum of considerations, including the escalation of operational expenses attributed to the inflation rate.

The management remains steadfast in its commitment to being considerate of parental concerns, assuring that the revised fee remains well within the limits established by CBSE and reflective of the diverse needs of our parent community.

All members of the forum expressed unanimous agreement regarding the proposed fee revision, acknowledging that it is indeed nominal. PTA member from Grade VII, Ms Nidhi Agnihotri, commended the school for its prudence, proposing that the fee increase is, in fact, quite modest when weighed against the superior quality of education, extensive facilities, and the diverse range of activities offered by Akshara International School. The resolution was passed collectively during the PTA meeting. This fee hike will be applicable from academic session 2025-26 and will remain the same for 2026-2027.

7. GENERAL DISCUSSION:

- Grade IX PTA member, Ms. Shakti Balecha, praised the dedication of the teaching staff, noting how students enjoy attending school and showing noticeable personal development. She stated the proposed fee hike is nominal and justified, considering the exceptional educational environment. Ms. Balecha also suggested revamping the school uniform.
- The Grade VII PTA member praised the school's overall functioning, noting the competence-based paper setting that fosters critical thinking. She suggested enhancements to the LEP and recommended more math practice worksheets for deeper understanding. The Principal then briefed the forum on how the NIE planner is effectively used to improve students' language skills through newspapers.
- Grade XI PTA member, Mr. Kulkarni, commended the school's overall functioning and requested an external tour for Grade XI students. In response, Senior Coordinator Ms. Sowjanya informed the forum that Grade XI students will participate in internships and picnics, ensuring a well-rounded experience beyond academics.
- Grade X PTA member commended the school's meticulous planning, curriculum, and the dedication of the teachers. She highlighted the importance of fostering emotional intelligence (EQ) among the current generation, emphasizing the need to cultivate empathy and understanding towards those around them.

8. DATE AND TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The next SEC-PTA meeting is proposed in the second week of January.

Overall, the session witnessed a healthy discussion which ended on a positive note.

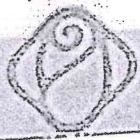

The Principal expressed her heartfelt gratitude to all the PTA members for their continual support and valuable feedback. The meeting ended with a sense of pleasure and contentment for all the members.

Thank you.

Regards,

Secretary, PTA-SEC,

Akshara International School.
