		was to meet parents personally and guide the students for Board Exam. This meeting was very effective and parents were happy and content. It also helped the students to understand their loopholes. This Parent-Principal-Teacher meet was a wonderful experience. The most awaited ceremony of the School Farewell which provides emotional closure for departing students, it also marks beginning of a new chapter, as they embark on their future endeavours. This also celebrates the achievements and milestones of the students. For this a proper planning was done by grade IX and XI students they had organised a party.
