Non-Banking Organisation to support Fee Payment to parents.

A. “Jodo” is a Non-Banking Organisation (BHAROSEPE TECHNOLOGY SERVICES PRIVATE LIMITED) which has been introduced to supporting parents in paying their wards school fees to MIT- World Peace School. An official MOU has been signed between the two Organisation for this support and understanding.

B. MOU between the Organisations – MIT World Peace School and Jodo has provided 3 easy and flexible options for parents to pay their fees through JODO to the Respective School of MIT- WPS. Below are the 3 options provided to parents to pay school fees.

- a. Jodo Cred: Is a Jodo product wherein Jodo shall provide EMI Facility to Qualified Parents based on terms and conditions provided under the Agreement. Jodo shall facilitate Financing Facility to the Qualified Parents, wherein, the Client shall receive the Payable Fee from the Financing Partner, and subsequently EMI collections from the Qualified Parents shall be directly repaid to the Financing Partner’s account. Here Jodo will give parents 6 payment instalments towards their total Annual Tuition Fees. MIT- WPS gives Parents 3% discount on total fees if the payment is done in one. Here the same discount will be given to JODO & JODO will be giving Parents 6 instalments to pay the fees.

- b. Jodo Flex: Jodo facilitates payment of Payable Fee through recurring payments product through e-NACH. Jodo works with Partners to facilitate a platform, through which Qualified Parents can set up mandates (ECS), and accordingly, on the due dates, money is auto debited from Qualified Parents account (with prior reminder) and settled to the Client's account.
- c. Jodo Pay: Jodo facilitates instant payment solutions through Partners (such as payment gateway), and enables the clients to share payment links through emails etc for smooth payments.
- C. JODO has been integrated with MCB and parents can view their details through the app.
- D. More Details are mentioned in the MOU.
